Good News for Sheep Farmers
The well-known Veterinary Surgeon
Mr Robert Hall, M.R.C.V.S
Inventor and Sole Manufacturer of the popular
HALL'S SHEEP DIP
Having determined to introduce this valuable Composition into general use in the Argentine Republic, has appointed Messrs Barnett & Co. his Agents for the River Plate.
This Dip is preferred to all others in Australia and New Zealand, where it has successfully stood a competitive trial for many years. The Inventor claims for this Dip the following advantages—
1st—It is instantly and completely soluble in either warm or cold water.
2nd—It is non-poisonous in its effects on Wool or Sheep, and healing to all Sores on the Skin.
3rd—It is a certain preventive, and perfect cure for SCAB.
4th—It most effectually destroys Red Lice, Sheep Ticks, Maggots and every other kind of Parasite found on Sheep and Cattle.
5th—It is acknowledged by all who have used it, to be the best composition known for improving the quality and promoting the growth of the Wool.
6th—The Dip is invaluable for protecting the Sheep from the attacks of Flies and Maggots.
This Dip has been imported into this country by some large Sheepfarmers already, and used in preference to any other, for some years back; but it is only lately an Agent has been appointed.
Important
This Dip is guaranteed to be manufactured only by the Inventor in England, and is of course very superior to the many Dips made in this country.

THE NEW ENGLISH TRUST COMPANY.

In the prospectus of the new English Banking Co. formed in London to carry on business in the River Plate, called The River Plate Trust Loan and Agency Co. (Limited), we find the following important table which shows at a glance how in other countries kindred companies flourish, and we certainly feel bound to give our reasons why we believe this new Company will not prove as successful here as those expressed in that list. The following is the table—

NAME OF COMPANY.	Amount of shares	Paid up	Price	o/o Prem
Australian Mortgage, Land and Finance	25	5	17	240
British North American Mortgage	10	2½	3	43
British and Australasian Trust and Loan	25	12½	45	80
National Mortgage and Agency of New Zealand	10	5	50	400
New Zealand Loan and Mercantile Agency Co.	10	5	100	900
New Zealand Trust and Loan, Limited	25	12½	50	100
South Australian Land Mortgage and Agency	10	1	2	100
South African Loan, Mortgage and Mercantile	10	1	27	270
Trust and Agency of Australasia	10	1	63	630
			200	2400

It will be seen from these quotations that the Company whose shares are at the lowest premium, only 37 per cent, is the South Australian Land Mortgage Agency, whilst the first named on the list shows its shares at 240 per cent premium.

As it may interest many to scan extracts from this prospectus, we shall publish them to-morrow, although to our mind the real interest the River Plate public has in this new concern is the growing importance of this country abroad which the new bank proves, and the imperative necessity of the Government to adopt every measure for the better protection of life and property in the camp, which will doubtless be the chief field for the new Company's investments.

In the long string of Australian, South African, Canadian and New Zealand Trust Companies which we give above, there is not an acre of land in any of those countries to rival in fertility the poorest lands in the River Plate; but if their lands are less fertile, and on the area on which 1500 sheep in those countries can be fed 30,000 can be grazed here, still with all such unmeasurable advantages we are behind those colonies in our roads, our country police, our Municipal Governments, and our protection to life and property, and not all the riches of our fertile plains can equalize this drawback. Give us good roads as in N. Zealand, give us police stations every 4 miles on those roads; give us the same protection that the graziers in Australia have, and in less than 3 years we promise that the shares of the new company will be at 500 per cent premium. But we are beginning at the wrong end to be bringing out £500,000 fresh capital to lend to the farmers so long as the judges in this country punish assassination with three years' imprisonment. Yesterday we read in some of the native papers that two assassins have been tried, convicted and sentenced to 3 years' imprisonment. If murder is on the increase in the Plate, we all know who to blame for it. Such conduct on the part of our judges merits harsher terms than we care to employ: but the hour of reckoning will certainly come. We have read of it not only in the U. States, but in other lands—and no mortgage trust company, to do business in the camps of Buenos Ayres, can ever hope to see its shares at a premium so long as murder is punished by a few years' imprisonment.

We deplore being called on to make these remarks on the entry amongst us of a new company with £500,000 to lend the farmers, but it is about time to hold the judges in this country responsible for the present sad state of affairs. We welcome the new company, but indeed shall give it a double welcome if it be the means of bringing about some reform in camp affairs, camp roads, camp police, and, above all, camp executions. Better the Company never was started if affairs in the camp are to go on as they are going, and the first dividend to the shareholders be the corpses of some of its mortgagors, butchered because they raised some money from the new company, and the murderers, knowing that they would only get a few years' imprisonment, assassinated the mortgagors to get the proceeds of the mortgage.

The Penitentiary is so filled with assassins that only the other day one of the turnkeys was barbarously murdered by a prisoner, and although the deed was committed in broad day light, in the presence of numerous witnesses, this double-dyed murderer has not yet been sentenced or executed. If we have crime in the Plate, if the fair credit of the country is tarnished by such frequent assassinations, it is because the judges and the Executive do not carry out the law and shoot the villains that stain with human blood the finest land the sun shines on, Where are the assassins of the two Scotch farmers in Corrientes? This double murder caused even a shudder in England when the news reached there.

The profound interest we take in everything that bears on the progress of this fine country urges us to ask the Government how much longer will it tolerate the judges calling assassination homicide, and punishing the most cold-blooded murderers with a few years' imprisonment?

To shower five hundred thousand sovereigns over the camp may increase the value of our estancias and lands, but it will ever prove a fresh incentive to murder; and if Governor Rocha and his Ministers will not take some measure to have assassins shot and the lives of the people in the camp better protected, the less money that goes out to the estancias and farms for the present the better.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent)

August 23rd.

The rosy hours, trooping from the East, had reached their ninth station,

The graceful 'Aguila' reposed like a swan on the gentle waters of the river in front of the Bajada of San Francisco, awaiting the coming o Mr. Minister and his retinue.

They arrived and crowded into the commodious steamer until she could contain no more.

The fair sex, a glorious galaxy, abounded.

The 'Aguila' presented the fantastic aspect of a floating garden, in which had been capriciously agglomerated the most lovely flowers of the tropical zone, Flora's favorite home.

Suddenly a shrill whistle startles the golden-finned inhabitants of the pearly waters, and we were off!

Lulled by the sweet cadence of peace-inspiring music (the brass band of the Piquete de Vigilantes, no doubt), we steamed slowly and majestically through the picturesque islands on whose emerald shores the tuneful wavelets of the Parana broke in melodious harmony, like the murmur of cooing doves or of bright-gemmed humming-birds.

The feeble efforts of the breeze could do no more than gently caress the ringlets of the beautiful maidens and then retire intoxicated.

Awaiting us at the Paso was an immense concourse of enthusiastic citizens, headed by the sympathetic President of the Industrial Club.

Crackers and cheers thundered throughout the welkin, filling Heaven's vault with resounding echoes.

The street which led to the new and elegant building, about to be opened for the benefit of the rising generation, was gorgeously adorned with flags and evergreens, the latter symbolical of our flourishing province under its present administration, and causing a lovely effect.

The solemn act of blessing and inaugurating the building was then proceeded with.

The symposiac gathering afterwards was marked by the usual accompaniments of beer and speeches.

There, Mr. Standard! I am not quite satisfied. It should have been done in blank verse. In the above you have a pallid translation of the account of the opening of a new schoolhouse in that flourishing little port, Santo Tome, near Santa Fe. In commemoration of the 'future' efforts of our Governor in the cause of education it is to be called 'Dr. Iriondo's School,'

The Young Ladies' Amateur Concert, organised by the talented master, Escalante, came off on Saturday night, and was a complete success. The greatest part of the performers were young girls, pupils of the celebrated Chilian Professor, some of them scarcely entered in their teens. Mr. Escalante marshalled eighteen of the young ladies on the stage of our handsome and spacious theatre, the 'Olimpo,' which is about two-thirds of the size of the Colon. The building was completely filled with the cream of Rosario society, both foreign and native. The stage was a huge mass of flowers and light, and with the variously-coloured drapery of the persons that filled it really was a charming scene. Of course, no one expected surprises in the way of artistic talent. All went to encourage our young girls in their studies in music and give them confidence in themselves. Thus the audience maintained such a profound silence that the girlish voices were distinctly audible throughout the vast building, and the applause which greeted each performer was general, hearty and inspiriting. With one or two exceptions, the self-possession of the young ladies was wonderful, and was strengthened by the admirable coolness with which Mr. Escalante directed the orchestra.

The concert opened with the chorus from 'Sapho,' in which every one of the performers, to the number of eighteen, took part, and was sung with considerable accuracy.

One of the youngest of the performers took her seat alongside the master at the grand piano, and executed the overture, four hands, of 'Juana de Arco.' The blushing that suffused her face at finding herself for the first time before so many hundreds of eyes, did not, however, effect her rosy little fingers. The young lady acquitted herself in quite a brilliant manner.

The 'Duo Tebromento' was sung very prettily by the two daughters of Colonel Fermin Rodriguez, ex-National Deputy.

'Sogno Beato' was rendered by Miss Hortensia Gorse with a voice that evidently promises to be a fine one.

The aria of the opera 'Un Ballo in Maschera' was committed to Miss Rosa Aldao, who has the advantage over many of her young companions of a long musical training. Her voice is clear, and some of her notes are sweet and powerful.

The tercetto 'Ave Maria,' of Marchetti, was beautifully sung by Miss Adela Caraffa, Miss Mazza and Miss Arisanta Rodriguez.

Miss Josephine Schlieper rather took the house by surprise in the 'Fantasia' for four hands, which she played with the master. Looking off the stage, one would have supppsed a practised pianist was playing; but looking on to the stage we see a young girl of some eleven or twelve Aprils, whose fingers surely cannot span an octave. She is one of the most promising pupils of Mr. Escalante, and will undoubtedly be a great pianiste.

The romanza of the 'Favorita' was the origin of a burst of applause. It was sung by Miss Crisanta Rodriguez, who finding herself alone on the stage became very nervous. She commenced bravely with her sweet contralto voice, and although her trembling fingers could scarcely hold the music, she nearly finished when her agitation overpowered her. The immense applause of the goodnatured audience must have been a composing salve to her feelings.

One of the gems was 'Il Sogno,' sung in an admirable manner by Miss Emma Glover, accompanied by the master on the piano and Mr. Consiglio on the violin. If the young lady really felt any trepidation, which it is natural she should, she managed to conceal it, for with great apparent composure, and in clear, silvery, contralto notes, that have a great future in them, she got through her beautiful song triumphantly.

The fantasia from 'Aida' by our old friend, Arthur Napoleon, a most difficult composition, was brilliantly executed by Miss Maria Paganini, without the music before her, showing a great power of memory and perfect command of the instrument.

The 'O mia piccirella,' from the opera of Salvator Rosa, was beautifully rendered by Miss Adela Caraffa, who possesssss a highly cultivated and mature voice. The audience paid her the merited compliment of insisting on an 'encore.'

The master had become ambitious towards the finishing of the programme. He selected the quartette and chorus of the 'Moise.' A more simple finale would probably have been more successful. To those who had never heard this sublime music it was, of course, 'caviare to the million;' but the initiated could only remember that the greatest artists in the world approach with fear and reverence the wonderful composition of 'Moise.' Little children 'rush in where angels fear to tread,"

Great credit is due to the unwearied labour of Professor Escalante in organizing this concert, and all his pupils acquitted themselves well.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The news from Montevideo yesterday was all about the Suarez Centenary fete, which passed off very nicely, the illuminations at night and the lunch by day being the best of it. There was near being a row owing to the bust of Artigas being placed cheek by jowl with that of the hero of the day; and Santos had it removed to the other end of the Plaza. The military were all in gorgeous new uniforms, but they performed their evolutions in such a slovenly manner that Santos 'blew up' every regiment on the ground—from the Colonels to the drummer boys—and that in such thundering tones that the public could hear every word he said. It will be funny if the army do not remember this rebuff when Hannibal arrives at the gates.

We recommend to our readers the extract from Mr Gladstone's speech in defence of the Government's policy in the Transvaal, to be found in our Supplement. Many of the speeches delivered on this subject are amongst the best ever heard in the House, and 'the intellect of England' has again most triumphantly refuted the charges of the Opposition.

Dr Jorge, President of the Western Railway, will, says the Republica, shortly leave for Europe on a mission in connection with the 20 million Provincial Loan. We thought it was all arranged.

There will be Mass, and Sermon in English, to-morrow at San Roque Church, at 12 o'clock, as usual.

A colleague announces that this province has now only 600 leagues of Public Land available for sale, in addition to 400 leagues Reserve, which must be rented, not sold, according to Law. The best thing now is to sell no more but keep the 1000 leagues for immigrants. Not a few people say that the system of selling Public Lands in this country is a huge mistake, and that the State should adopt the Australian principle of renting them at very low rents. This might not suit here, but none can deny that our system of dealing with Public Lands here has been woefully loose, and will probably remain so.

The lot of very indifferent paving now going on in the city suggests the idea that stone and shingle could easily be brought from Tandil and the outlying streets Macadamised. Good Macadam is better than bad paving any day; but perhaps it would turn out six of one and half a dozen of the other. Most of the paving will have to be torn up again when the City Improvement Works are resumed.

In spite of the denials of the Rio Grande papers, it is positively asserted that His Majesty Dom Pedro will come to the Continental Exhibition. The Brazilian Government has allotted 50,000 pats towards the Empire's appearance at the Show, and its section will be one of the finest in the Exhibition. One characteristic feature will be a Coffee Fountain at which all comers can drink the very best coffee Brazil produces, free, gratis and for nothing.

Alvear mnstard will soon oust Coleman's from the market. Some mustard grown at the Alvear Colony has been analyzed in town and given the most splendid result. In trying mustard it is of the first importance that the ham or corned-beef be A. 1.

Private advices from New York by the mail explain President Garfield's relapse. One of Guitaux's bullets injured the liver, the wound the doctors feared most all through. There can be very little hope now.

Play-goers are all agog at the report that we are to have Salvini and Sarah Bernhardt to open the new theatre in Calle Florida. Humiliating as it is to confess it' neither Ristori, Salvini, or Rossi ever had here as full or enthusiastic audiences as they deserved, although the lady certainly had something very near the mark in the French Theatre, opposite the Hotel de la Paix; but Rossi and Salvini too frequently played to a beggarly account of empty benches. Sarah, however, is, by all accounts, so naughty and so nice, that she is certain to create a 'furore' here, irrespective of her wonderful talents.

The Victor Hugo business at the Colon was a miserable failure: not a dozen Frenchmen in the house. Mr Mitre's address was the gem of the night. On the other hand, the Hairdressers' Feast and Curling-tongs Ball at Las Conchas was the greatest success in the way of a 'fete shampootre' that the barbers of Buenos Ayres have ever attempted.

We received a batch of Cordoba papers yesterday, but there was nothing in them, except that the telegraph lines in that quarter are 'perfect.' This is something new, the imperfect tense being, unfortunately, that most in vogue in these latitudes for everything in the public service line.

Talking of the Telegraph, its first cousin the Telephone is now crawling out to the suburbs, and unsightly posts, with triple crosses, are springing up in all directions. A colleague says that the telephone wires in the city are so overcome by the hot weather for the last week that they have to lean on each other to keep from fainting, the result being a confusion in the messages to which the Tower of Babel was an intelligible trifle in comparison.

We have to thank our go-ahead friends Messrs Dewey and Co, the well-known news agents, for sending us the very latest papers from London yesterday. The Summer Number of the Graphic, of which Messrs. D. have received a limited number of copies, is a caution to all other illustrated competitors: it beats the Illustrated London News into epileptic fits: It is all coloured, representing summer life at home. The engravings 'Latest,' 'The Tender Passion,' 'Scarlet Runners'. 'In 1575' (showing the costume of our 31st great grandmothers—almost the same as worn to-day), 'Guitar Player', &c. are indeed beautiful. The gem of all, however, is the large coloured sheet 'Dying to save the Queen's Colours,' showing the heroic death of Lieutenants Melville and Coghill, of the 24th Regiment, at the battle of Isandlwhana. It is the finest thing ever published in an illustrated paper.

The Tucuman papers say that sugar is rapidly rising in price up there, owing to the anticipated bad harvest of cane, the frosts during the winter having played Old Henry with it.

Professor Rackebush has started from Cordoba for Jujuy, to see if there is any truth in the recent rumour that 'Ile' has been struck in the latter quarter by some lucky explorer. 'Ile' is not what it was when it first turned up in Pennsylvania and startled the wax-candle world.

The snatching of Mrs Dorrego's body is certainly a novel event here and was evidently modelled on the similar crime committed in the U. States with the corpse of the millionaire Stewart. The 'recurrectionists', however, had only time to accomplish half their task, as the body was found in another vault. At 3 o'clock the two criminals were arrested in Belgrano. In the morning nearly 300 peones and others about the Recoleta were arrested as a precautionary measure. The wealthy families in town may look out for more of this work. It is some comfort that poor editors can count on being allowed to rest quietly in their graves, as there is never much cash to be got out of them, dead or alive,

Telegrams from Pilar report a shocking double murder there, the criminal being a Basque and his victims his 'patron' named Lopez, and the latter's partner named Gonzales. The murderer stabbed the first fatally in four places, and drove a pitchfork twice through the heart of the second; he is in custody.

We are very sorry to hear that Don A P Lezica is seriously unwell with a lung attack, and three doctors attending him.

The first Locusts of the season have appeared in Cordoba, but as yet have not eaten much, but later on we may expect grief.

The suburban quintas now look charming, with all the peach trees in bloom. Should frost set in, 'adios' all hope of a good peach crop.

Simon Martinez's proclamation to the people of Banda Oriental is of the genuine old type, and Bombastes Furioso might take a lesson from him. Simon signs himself 'Commander-in-Chief of the Constitutional Army of Liberation,' and refers to Colonel Latorre as a 'Dictatorial hyena.' We wouldn't give a paper dollar for Simon's chance of being President of Uruguay, or even Minister of Finance, and should Latorre catch him?

Colonel Latorre is still in town, and has not left, as one of our evening colleagues asserts. About lunch hour yesterday the gallant Colonel was not a hundred miles from the Standard museum, but he hadn't time to drop in and see the Paraguayan snake's skin.

Commander Farias advises, from Bahia Blanca, that the whole frontier line is free of Indians for the moment. We fear it is only for the moment.

Colonel Winter, one of the most distinguished of our frontier veterans, has been taken prisoner by a fair Patagonian lady. He was married on the 16th inst. Conquered for once.

Governor Bosch has started sugar planting in the Chaco, with 150 tons of cane purchased in Paraguay.

The Bride of Lammermoor will be given to-night at the French Theatre with Madlle. Waldteufel as the luckless heroine. It will be a treat.

ON 'CHANGE.

Aug. 26th, 1881

Patacons	25.65
Cedulas A	99½
National Bank Shares	119½

The further rise in the Bank of England rate was the first news on 'Change to-day, and as a matter of course gold at once hardened. Many parties who anticipated an advance in the Bank rate were somewhat surprised that the advance was more than half per cent as is usual with the Bank of England, and it is thought that there must be a very strong drain of gold on the Bank when the rate in a week is put up one per cent.

There was a good deal of what may be termed speculative alarming news talked of on 'Change this afternoon. Houses they said had received telegrams to at once secure their gold for the end of the year, and many other matters which it is just as well to say nothing of, since we regard them as pure bolas, got up for a purpose. Gold certainly rules very hard and may advance somewhat, but we are now nearly over the winter and may look forward to a promising 'cosecha.'

Gold opened at 25.70 cash and closed at 25.65; amount sold cash 54,540. For end of month 561,000 at 25.70. For September 30th 630,000, opening at 25 55 and closing at 25.50. For October 31, 110,000 sold at 25.50 and for November at same rate. Total gold sales 1,388,540 pats.

In Cedulas a little more business done; for cash only one sale, 10,000 at 99½; for to-morrow 18,000 at 99½, and for end of month 32,000 sold at 99½. Total sales 102,000, of which only 10,000 old cash.

National Bank Shares ruled very active at afterhours, and business done for end of month up to 121½, after which there was a pause, closing at 121½. For Sept. large sales up to 119, closing at 118¾. Cedulas no animation and nothing doing; buyers offering 99⅝ for end of month.

The Provincial Bank discounted to-day 4½ millions, and there is talk on 'Change of interest being raised to 8 o/o

The sale of two estancias in Entre Rios is reported, prices not given. General Racedo is the great candidate for the new Governorship.

The delay of the Senate Committee in despatching the new Consol Law causes an uneasy feeling in certain circles, and there is much talk about some new amendments which if attempted will defeat the measure.

Mr Walter Graham leaves to-morrow for Corrientes to put up the new machinery coming out for the new Joint Stock Sugar Company started in Corrientes. The machinery comes from the renowned firm of Fawcett, Preston & Co., of which Mr Hill is the representative in the Plate. This new Sugar Co. has already 125 squares planted with sugar cane, the new machinery will be up and in working order in June 1882. We hear that the new machinery for the English Misiones sugar firm Messrs Morris & Getting will be out in October; and on 'Change we had the news that Mr Ocampo has brought down two vessels from Asuncion laden with sugar plants for the colony.

The list of Cedulas amortized reached us so late this evening that we are forced to hold it for to-morrow.

The total amount of Exchange drawn by the Provincial Bank up to date is said to be about $300,000 stg. Nothing much done in Exchange to-day. The rise in gold gives splendid rates for remittances.

The London Economist gives the following: "The finances of the Argentine Republic.—A Parliamentary blue-book issued this week contains an interesting report by Mr E H Egerton, our representative at B. Aires, upon the trade and finances of the Argentine Republic. On the whole Mr Egerton takes a favourable view of the financial condition of the country, although he is careful to point out that serious difficulties have yet to be overcome before Argentine finance can be placed upon a stable basis. The budget for the current year places the estimated revenue at 19,898,777 hard dollars, and the expenditure at 19,836,501, thus showing a small surplus. But in quoting these figures Mr Egerton adds "it is notorious that beyond the published estimates and exclusive of the floating debt to the Provincial Bank the floating Government liabilities are never small, but I may point out that for more than eighteen years the Argentine Government has honourably paid its way abroad without raising a foreign loan, and that the useful discipline of enforced economy has constantly been of benefit to the natural resources." Now, however, a new loan for 12 millions hard dollars has been negotiated, and the way in which this is spent will, Mr Egerton believes, be significant of the future of the country. Should a large part of it be spent upon roadways and useful public works, or in redeeming outstanding liabilities, a hopeful view of the future of the country will be justified. Although, however, "good hopes for the prospect of the country may fairly be expressed, nothing can be more misleading and mischievous than the 'tall talk' indulged in by foreigners as well as nations as to the brilliant future of this state. The real effort has yet to be made to secure that future by setting the house in order." The foreign debt of the country amounted at the beginning of this year to £9,606,800, and the internal debt about £7,000,000."

The following late news about the Antwerp produce market, from Messrs Bunge & Co. of that city, under date July 28th, 1881, is important:—

Wool—
The third series of our this year's public sales opened on 19th inst. At this first sitting 4,973 bales Australian wools were offered, for which numerous buyers had come as well from the interior as from France. The competition was brisk enough; nevertheless the prices realised do not entirely reach those paid at the last London sales. The holders, however, not desirous to withdraw, were able to sell everything at a small decline on London rates. The next day the R. Plate wool auctions began in presence of a good attendance of buyers. Bidding, however, was but slack and much had to be withdrawn. In the following sittings the tendency grew worse still, and prices which at the opening ruled equal to May rates, or even a shade better, are to-day 5 centimes lower. Good and fine wools, a few choice lots excepted, share in this fall, perhaps, in a larger degree than inferior qualities. Lambs are depreciated, former purchases of manufacturers showing the yield to be below expectations. Montevideos are the most neglected and only small quantities could sell.

The principal purchases have been made for the interior and for Germany, whilst the North of France buys little, as trade there seems to be in a poor condition, whilst the Belgian and German manufacturers report well about their industry.

There have in seven sittings been—

Offered.		Sold.
2,810	Montevideo	1,243
686	Miscellaneous	334
16,412 bales.		9,727 bales.

We delay to give statistics of the article's position, until after the public sales.

In Havre public sales have been fixed to open on the 9th August; the quantities to be offered will be declared on 1st proximo.

Sheepskins—
There has been a better inquiry for this article, and 197 bales have found buyers, however, at unchanged rates.
Stock, 470 bales.

B. Aires, Aug. 26th, 1881.

Dear Standard,

Darwin's theory shows why people generally go with the current, and every farmer knows that his sheep do the same.

The following extracts of letters from the U. States will show you that it is sometimes wiser to act and speak according to one's own judgment than to imitate the example of others:—

"Boston, May 20th, 1881

"All the information we get on linseed leads to one point: 'Let it alone'."

"Boston, June 3rd, 1881

"Linseed unsaleable at any price; our Western farmers grow all that is needed, and all of the parties in this part of the country who were formerly in this business have either failed or changed their trade."

The figures contained in my former letters must have had very sharp points, as you have mistaken them for pitchforks.

Yours truly,
GERMAN SUBSCRIBER.

Orden del Exmo Gobierno de esa Provincia

Con derecho a ubicar donde se quiera

SIN BASE ALGUNA

Venta a Plazos

En nuestra casa San Martin No 51

El Martes 20 de September

A las 2 en punto de la tarde

El Gobierno de Santiago ha sido, como lo decimos, autorizado por su Legislatura a vender esta gran zona de tierra, pero a objeto de facilitar la operacion, la venta se hara sin otro plano que el de la Provincia, por cuanto se da el derecho de ubicar donde se quiera, dentro de los limites de la misma.

Con este derecho cualquiera persona que este en el secreto de la situacion de un campo inmediato a la plaza principal, a las quintas contiguas, a la ciudad o por sus alrededores, puede pedir su ubicacion alli mismo, como tambien los que conozcan donde existen los que puedan tener pastos de primera calidad aguas permanentes, montes, etc.

El Gobierno de Santiago no pretende con esta operacion hacer un negocio.—Su objeto se limita a fomentar el progreso de su Provincia, poniendo la tierra al alcance de todo el mundo, llamando asi a su centro la formacion de grandes establecimientos y la poblacion consiguiente.

A cada comprador se le dara un boleto con un numero de orden y en el cual se fijara un termino para pedir la ubicacion, de manera que el primera que compre, sea el primero que elija y asi sucesivamente.

Siendo la venta dentro del territorio de Santiago, ningun otro gobierno iniciara protesta alguna, lo que importara garantizar un titulo perfecto y libre de todo gravamen, habiendose resuelto que las escrituras se otorguen ante de oficina de un escribano de esta capital.

El pago se hara mitad al contado al estenderse la escritura y el resto a 6 y 12 meses en garantia del mismo campo.

En resumen—Jamas se ha puesto en venta un lote de tierra en iguales condiciones y desde hoy el publico debe preocuparse de averiguar en que punto pedir la ubicacion del numero de leguas que necesita para la plantacion de establecimientos de campo, ingenios etc.

London, July 29th.

In the House of Lords last even ing, Lord Waveney withdrew the Cottiers and Cottars (Dwellings) Bill, and a Bill for the reconstruction of the Patriotic Fund was,upon the motion of the Earl Northbroke, read a second time.

The House of Commons was again occupied in the consideration of the Irish Land Bill as amended in Committee. Mr Gladstone will move the third reading at the morning sitting to-day.

Our Correspondent in New York telegraphs that a torpedo boat has been building there during the last two years for an unknown purpose at a cost of 20,000 dollars. One of the trustees of the Irish Skirmishing Fund is believed to be connected with the vessel. The boat runs under water, is shaped like a cigar, is thirty feet long and six feet wide. The builders believe she is for the Fenians. There is a suspicion, however, our Correspondent adds, that the mystery has been raised merely to advertise the boat.

A telegram from the Viceroy announces that in an action fought on Wednesday the Ameer's forces were totally defeated by Ayoub Khan. Eighteen guns were taken and all the baggage. It seems that during the battle the Khelat regiment and the Candahar Horse deserted to Ayoub Khan. Thereupon the remainder of Abdul Rahman's forces fled, leaving their guns and baggage on the field.

Our Special Correspondent in Tunis telegraphs that the panic which has prevailed there owing to the Arab rising, is now subsiding. Bands of marauding Arabs have appeared six miles from Tunis, and it is reported that they have killed several Europeans and some of their own countrymen.

In the French Chamber yesterday a Bill was passed authorising the sale of the whole of the Crown jewels, notwithstanding the opposition of the Government, which wished for only a partial sale.

Mr Mundella, M.P., yesterday distributed the prizes at the Middle Class Schools' Corporation in Cowper-street, City-road, taking occasion to commend the excellence of that system of instruction, and at the same time expressing the heartiest wishes for its extension.

The Railway Rates Committee met again yesterday. The witnesses examined were:—Mr J. Light, goods manager of the South Eastern, and Mr Scott, manager of the South Western. At the next sitting Mr Farrer, of the Board of Trade, will be called, after which no further evidence will be taken this session.

The Spanish cruiser Gravina was yesterday launched from the dockyard of the Thames Ironworks and Shipbuilding Company in the presence of a large number of visitors.

Temperature yesterday afternoon was recorded as 72 in London, but the maximum readings in other districts were nearly all below 65.

Mr C. Perkin's Madame du Barry won the Goodwood Cup, Mr Craven's Nottingham being second, and Mr F. Gretton's Fernandez third. The other results included the following:—Prince of Wale's Stakes—Tarry Woo; Corinthian Plate—Sword Dance; Racing Stakes—Privateer; Rous Memorial Stakes—Dutch Oven; Selling Stakes—Matlock beat Shabrack; Singleton Stakes—Tristan.

In the cricket match between Rugby and Marlborough Schools Rugby won by two wickets. The Harrow Wanderers yesterday gained the second victory during the present tour, when they defeated the Sessay Club by 187 runs.

In the Queen's Bench Division yesterday Mr Bradlaugh, M.P. moved for a rule calling upon Mr Clarke the plaintiff in the recent action against him, to show cause why there should not be a new trial, on the ground that the verdict was against the weight of evidence. The Court will probably give judgment on Friday.

At the Mansion House yesterday a penalty of £20 was imposed upon the North German Lloyd Ocean Steam Company for a breach of the Privy Council regulations in respect to the conveyance of cattle.

Mr Pender, M.P., in moving the adoption of the report at the half-yearly meeting of the Direct United States Cable Company, said the question of a shilling rate had been long under consideration by the directors of the respective telegraph systems, and its earlier introduction had been prevented because it was found that it would not give an adequate return to the shareholders. It was only since the introduction of the duplex system of working that the reduction had been possible, and they were now about to give the shilling tariff a fair trial.

Mr Magniac, M.P., in presiding at the ordinary general meeting of the National Bank of New Zealand pointed out that there was a distinct improvement in the affairs of the colony, both trade and agriculture, and the price of wool had recently risen. Moreover, there was clearly a settlement of native affairs, which was another satisfactory feature.

Yesterday, at the half-yearly meeting of the National Bank in Dublin, the report having been adopted, a resolution was moved for the application of the principle of limited liability. This was carried unanimously.

It the stock markets yesterday business was inactive on the whole, but prices mostly recovered. North Staffordshire, however, declined upon the announcement of the dividend at the rate of 2 per cent per annum; the stock fell 2 per cent. Sheffield Ordinary and Deferred declined 1⅛ and 1⅜ respectively. The rise was chiefly in American issues and foreign Government Bonds Consols closed at 101 to 101⅛ for money and the account. £336,000 in gold was withdrawn from the Bank for abroad ou balance.

THE BOER WAR.

Mr Gladstone (who was received with loud Ministerial cheering): I was in hopes that the hon. and gallant gentleman who has just sat down would have urged me to say something as to the sense which the Government entertain of the gallantry of the British soldier in South Africa. There never was, in my opinion, a more causeless charge than that which has been made by the hon. and gallant gentleman against the President of the Board of Trade, who deprecated the exaggerated statements of those who have treated the miscarriage of a small force under General Colley as a great military misfortune to this country. The reward which my right hon. friend has received for that temporary and prudent representation is that he has been rebuked as if he had been cruelly reviling the character of the British soldier, but I say that there was not the smallest shade of a reflection upon the character of the British soldier in anything that my right hon. friend said. (Cheers.) I congratulate the right hon. mover of the resolution upon having somewhat moderated the tone of his language in this House as compared with what he used elsewhere. [Hear, hear.) Addressing a safer audience at Stroud in February last he introduced into political warfare terms which, so far as I know, were unknown ever before. (Ironical Opposition cheers.) They may be known to the gentlemen who cheer me derisively, but it is new to me for a gentleman engaged in political life in this country to say of others that he despises them. Those cheers have now ceased. (Ministerial cheers.)

Sir M. Hicks-Beach: I beg to say that I am misreported. What I actually said was that I despised the conduct of men who acted as the Government have done. [Ministerial laughter.)

Mr Gladstone: It requires more astuteness than I possess to realise the value which the right hon. gentleman appears to attach to the distinction. (Laughter.) I have always held that free and strong language ought to be used when the occasion justifies it, but I repeat it is a novelty to me that such a term should be applied by one gentleman in political life to another. (Hear, hear.)

I am very doubtful whether, if that word had been uttered in this House, the right hon. gentleman would not have been compelled to withdraw it. ('Oh, oh', and cheers.) Attention has already been called by the member for Carnarvonshire in his admirable speech to the fact that to-night the right hon. gentleman opposite has not said what he stated at Cheltenham on June 8th, that the Government sent out orders to make terms with the Boers after the English arms had suffered three defeats, and that no more disgraceful surrender had been made by an English Government. (Opposition cheers.) I do not know whether I am to assume that these words are correctly or incorrectly reported.

Sir M. Hicks-Beach: Speaking from recollection, I believe they are correct.

Mr Gladstone: Then, sir, I do not hesitate to say that they are totally without foundation. (Ministerial cheers.) It was on Jan. 10, as may be learned from the telegrams, that Lord Kimberley stated to Mr Blythe that, provided the Boers should desist from armed opposition—(Hear, hear, from the Opposition)—her Majesty's Government did not despair of making a satisfactory arrangement. Was not that laying down the basis of negotiation? On Jan. 26th Lord Kimberley went somewhat further, and in a telegram to Sir Hercules Robinson he said, 'If the armed opposition should at once cease—(Hear, hear, from the Opposition)—her Majesty's Government would thereupon endeavour to frame such a scheme as in their belief would satisfy all enlightened friends of the Transvaal community.' That was on the 26th, and the first of the three unhappy engagements of Sir George Colley was not fought until Jan. 27th. (Ministerial cheers.) I affirm that these dates and these words prove that the heat of the right hon. gentleman carried him entirely beyond his recollection of the facts—(No, no, and cheers)—and that our offers preceded the first, instead of following the last, of the defeats. (Cheers.) Let us now consider for a moment what kind of an inheritance was left to us in the Transvaal; it was something very like what we received from the late Government in other quarters of the globe. (Ministerial cheers.) In 1852 we solemnly engaged to respect the independence of the Transvaal. What right had we to entrench upon the treaty, to make ourselves judges of it, and then to set up the miserable plea urged in the despatch of the right hon. gentleman opposite, that there was an implied reservation in it which made us competent to deal with the treaty as we did deal? The very essence of a treaty which is to bind nations so that no party can, under any circumstances, have any title to import into that treaty that which the treaty does not contain. Another unfortunate error entered into the policy of the late Government, and I think, precipitated them in their career. It was a premature, though no doubt a well-meant, attempt to bring into South Africa that principle of confederation which is admirable where your colonies are prepared for it, and where they obtain it in thorough conformity with their own desires, but which it is rash and dangerous to attempt to force upon them. (Hear, hear.) Well, unfortunately we broke the Sand River convention. The annexation was then suggested, but it was not to be effected unless it was agreeable to the will of the people or to a sufficient number of the people, and I presume that there was a belief on the part of Lord Carnarvon and the right hon. gentleman (Sir M. H. Beach) that the great majority of the Boers were favourable to the annexation. Very soon, however, after the annexation, out of 8,000 white adult males, 6,600 signed a declaration against it, and declined to accept it. (Hear, hear.) We have heard much to-night of the interests of the natives, but I want to know how this annexation operated in regard to the interests of the natives, and I call as a witness the hon and learned member for Chatham (Mr Gorst), who has reminded us to-night that that destructive and dishonourable Zulu war, which slaughtered thousands of innocent men, and which inflicted upon the British arms the most serious disaster that this generation has seen was the direct result of the annexation. (Ministerial cheers.) It was the result of the unfortunate necessity under which we lay of attempting to conciliate the Boers, when we had established interests of our own in connection with them, that led us into that sanguinary war. (Hear, hear.) I must also observe that I cannot too greatly mourn and lament the fact that the Government established over the Boers was one opposed to British institutions and to our colonial practice.

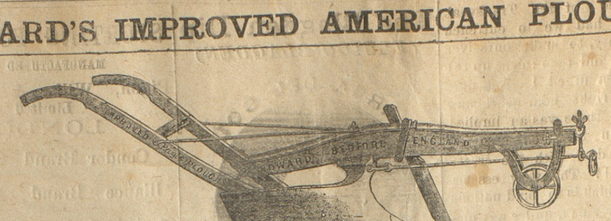
HOWARD'S IMPROVED AMERICAN PLOUGHS



The above represents the well known 'Eagle 75' Plough which, and other sizes, are manufactured by J. & F. HOWARD in the highest style of workmanship, and tens of thousands are in use. Several manifest improvements have been introduced. As shown in the engraving, the body clips the beam, and the 'centre draught' is also taken from the strongest part of the iron body,—thus giving an additional security against the beam breaking at the bolt holes—a very common occurrence with American made Ploughs.

The beam is made of Oak, and can if required be fitted with a steel plate on each side.

The shares are hardened upon J. & F. HOWARD'S well known patented water-chill process, which renders them not only tough and hard, but ensures their wearing better and longer than made when by any other process.

Prices of the various sizes, Nos. 19, 19½, 25, 26, 55, 75, &c., sent on application.
